

The Women's Bar Association's Solo and Small Firm Committee Presents a Two-Part Program:

Part I: Planning for the Expected:

Retirement, closing down your practice, and business "estate planning"

Can the person I have assigned to cover for me actually take over my practice if I am incapacitated? Am I leaving money on the table if I shut down my practice without doing any succession planning? What should I do to plan for retirement and to protect my assets?

LaPlume Law, LLC

74 Bedford Street, Lexington

Featured Speakers

Yan J. Katz, The Bulfinch Group
Nicole Starck, Law Offices of Nicole Starck

Part II: Planning for the Unexpected:

Planning for time away from your clients, from computer crashes to time in the hospital

75% of businesses that do not have a continuity plan fail within three years of a natural disaster. From relentless nor'easters to solutions that allow you to work from the beach, to taking leave for the birth/adoption of a child, to data loss prevention, this program will provide a review of considerations for your law office.
